

CASAA's Grantwriting 501 Seminar

Cycle beginning March 30 4:00 to 5:00 pm at CASAA
2650 Yale Blvd. SE Suite 110
See <https://goo.gl/maps/gA382> for a map.

Welcome to CASAA's grantwriting seminar, offered as a service to UNM colleagues who want to strengthen their skills in preparing grant applications. The seminar is team-taught by highly experienced CASAA grantwriters, investigators and administrators. Registration is required; please visit <https://esurvey.unm.edu/opinio/s?s=gw501req> to register.

Here is the schedule for this cycle:

Date	Instructor	What you will learn
March 30	Dr. J. Scott Tonigan	Identifying grant opportunities Changes in NIH applications How NIH grants are scored Interpreting Reviewer Scores
April 6	Dr. Jon Houck	Grant preparation timeline Managing project team
April 13	Dr. J. Scott Tonigan	How to prepare two crucial first- impression aspects of any proposal: the abstract and biosketch.
April 20	Dr. J. Scott Tonigan	Biosketch (cont)/ Preparing Specific Aims
April 27	Dr. Jon Houck	Specific Aims (cont)/Budgeting/ Preparing documents for Cayuse document files.
May 4	Dr. Jon Houck	Significance & Innovation : The importance of demonstrating study contributions
May 11	Dr. J. Scott Tonigan	Strategies and elements in the Approach section.
May 18	Dr. Jon Houck	Preparing a revised application/ critical considerations.
May 25	Dr. J. Scott Tonigan	JIT & Guiding your research proposal through the UNM IRB or HRRC clearance process, and conflict of interest review; federal Certificate of Confidentiality procedures.